

Words and Explanations

deftly (dehft lee) Something that is done deftly is done with skill and speed.

fervor (FUR vuhr) If you do something with fervor, you do it with great energy and dedication.

frenzy (FREHN zee) Someone in a frenzy is so excited or nervous that he or she is nearly out of control.

fusion (FYOO zhuhn) Fusion is when two or more things are combined or fused together so that they can't come apart.

invigorating (ihn VIHG uh rayt ihng) Something that is invigorating makes you feel full of new energy.

lithe (lyth) A lithe person is flexible and moves gracefully.

reverence (REHV uhr uhns) If you have reverence for someone, you show that person deep respect.

unequivocal (UHN ih KWIHV uh kuhl) If something is unequivocal, it cannot be misinterpreted because it is completely clear and obvious.

urgent (UR juhnt) If something is urgent, it needs to be taken care of immediately.

wile (wyl) Someone or something that wiles others tricks them into doing something.

“The proper words in the proper places are the true definition of style.”

—Jonathan Swift