

Words and Explanations

emit (ih MIHT) To send out or give off something is to emit it.

engross (ehn GROHS) If something engrosses you, it takes up your full attention.

equivocate (ih KWIHV uh KAYT) When you equivocate, you avoid telling the truth by not giving a direct answer.

impressionable (ihm PREHSH uh nuh buhl) If you are impressionable, you are easily influenced by others.

omniscient (om NIHSH uhnt) Someone who is omniscient knows or seems to know everything.

quizzical (KWIHZ uh kuhl) If you are quizzical about something, you question it or doubt it.

recollect (REHK uh LEHKT) If you recollect something, you remember it.

simulate (SIHM yuh layt) When you simulate something, you pretend that you are doing it.

wary (WAIR ee) If you are wary about something, you are worried that it might be dangerous or cause problems.

wiry (WYR ee) Someone who is wiry is thin but strong.

“Words have a longer life than deeds.”

—Pindar